Sandon Point at Bulli just an hour south of Sydney, Australia is world renowned for its surfing, PRISTINE BEACHES and rock pools, perfect for the kiddies.

A cycle and walking track starts from virtually your front door, taking you either north or south for 35 kilometres along sparkling coastline and coastal villages. Keep an eye out - whales and dolphins are often seen close to shore.

A short walk along Sandon Point Beach leads you to Ruby's cafe - popular for coffee, meals and spectacular views over the coastline. 'The Point' cafe just across the road offers wonderful breakfasts and lunches, coffees and home made sorbet. Or just stay at home on your private deck, throw a sausage on the barbie and enjoy a drink. The best fish and chips can be found just across the road! Late afternoons are very special - end the day with a stroll along the beach - the 100 meter walk home is well lit. Nearby, Symbio Wildlife Sanctuary, is a fascinating visit for both children and adults. Just minutes further north is the worlds second oldest National Park " the SYDNEY ROYAL NATIONAL PARK. Well worth a visit for a picnic, or day of boating on the historic waterways. Of course, if you want to visit Sydney, a train station at Bulli takes you to the heart of Sydney, with Circular Quay Station just minutes walk from the Opera House, The Rocks, Sydney Harbour Bridge and much more.
