Description

The Inn at San Pancho, Home of the GataGorda (named after our fat cat, Whiskey) spends its long tropical days lazing in the sun, peeking playfully down from its perch above the small fishing village of San Pancho.

With four charming casitas sprinkled across its lawns, and set amongst vibrant flower beds and swaying palms, the inn is, according to guest reviews "An Oasis," "Spectacular," "Enchanting," and "Exquisite." Each apartment offers large windows, memorable vistas and its own unique reflection of the colors, art and warmth of Mexico. Our pool with cool ice blue tiles, soothing waterfall, and an underwater bench for reading and sunning on hot afternoons, has panoramic ocean and mountain views, operates on a chemical-free salt water system and at the end of the day, when the astrological influences are just right, you can grab a float and watch the sun setting and the moon rising simultaneously.

Recently, San Pancho, which is 45 minutes north of Puerto Vallarta's International Airport, was officially christened the Cultural Capital of the State of Nayarit. Embraced by the Sierra Madre Mountains, surrounded by lush jungle and with a broad mile-long beach, San Pancho is unquestionably the jewel of Mexico's stunning Riviera Nayarit.

The Inn at San Pancho is air conditioning throughout (except in El Papagayo, which has superb natural ventilation), and Wifi is available in Agave, VillaVI, Papagayo and at the pool.
